Dear Dr. Harshim:

I would like to thank you for your generous support of $750 for the Endothelial Cell Heterogeneity and Organospecificity symposium to be held at the ASCB meeting on November 15, 1992 in Denver.

Your support is important in providing the necessary funding to help defray the costs for the excellent rostrum of speakers.

We will acknowledge your support both in the introductory note, in the abstract book that I will prepare for the meeting and in a review article that I am prepared to write and publish in the journal Endothelium.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Peter I. Lelkes, Ph.D.
